

You came into our hearts just six years ago,
like a bright light leading us to and fro.
Reflecting His love every step of the way,
a beacon of hope to lift us each day.

OUR LADY
MARTYRS

From the day of arrival, coined “the young one” by a few, you showed us that excellence can be achieved by the new.
Your smile fills a room and your joy captivates,
another indicator, you are one of the greats!

So focused on others, a humble servant through and through,
a faith filled example modeling just what to do.
Gently guiding us all to strive for the narrow gate,
the destination is salvation where the Lord’s love and mercy await.

A gift from above filled with His grace,
you have touched our hearts beyond time and place.
A reminder of all that is lasting and true,
how grateful we are that God blessed us with you!!

Love, your OLQM Family
